

Women on Boards Training Schedule 2020

Quarter 1 April 2020

Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
26-May-20	27-May-20	28-May-20	29-May-20
08h30 - 16h30	08h30 - 16h30	08h30 - 16h30	08h00 - 14h00
Venue: Midrand Conference Centre, 661 Pendulum Road, Halfway House Ext 12, Midrand, Tel 011 315-8326	Venue: Midrand Conference Centre, 661 Pendulum Road, Halfway House Ext 12, Midrand, Tel 011 315-8326	Venue: Midrand Conference Centre, 661 Pendulum Road, Halfway House Ext 12, Midrand, Tel 011 315-8326	Venue: Midrand Conference Centre, 661 Pendulum Road, Halfway House Ext 12, Midrand, Tel 011 315-8326
Corporate Governance Day 1	Corporate Governance 2 Day	Understanding and Interpreting Financial Statements	Simulated Board Meeting
Includes understanding the King IV report, as well as acts, regulations, and codes governing the corporate sector. The imperatives for ethical conduct are explained with reference to acts, regulations, codes and other documents	This course will teach you how to formulate recommendations for promoting organisational values, the code of conduct and ethical practices. Strong delegate participation and practical application of theory.	Red flags to look for in the financials. Signs there may be two sets of financial. Real life examples of fraud in public and private sector. Real life examples of fraud in public and private sector. What to do if you suspect fraud as a board member.	Each delegate is given a board post along with a board pack and a board meeting is run with delegates playing their part on the board.